A word about the transfer of securities:

Many people prefer to pay their annual pledge to the life of the church, or make special gifts, by means of a direct transfer of securities. If this is your wish, the following information may be helpful:

Transfers of stocks, etc. may be made to

First Congregational Church of Darien

A word about our Account Representative:

John Lydecker is a member of our church and known to many as a past chair of the Board of Stewards and a former Pledge Committee chair.

Therefore, whenever a church matter comes across his desk we can be assured it always receives an extra element of personal care.

A "letter of intent," however brief, is essential to ensure that we properly carry out any special instructions you may have for the use of your gift. For example: "This is to be applied toward/or in payment of my/our pledge to the life of the church in the Year 2011." This should be directed to the Church Treasurer at our 14 Brookside Road address.

Thank you, The Year 2011 Pledge Committee
