The First Congregational Church Nursery School

Admissions Policy:

Priority for nursery school admittance is given to current members of The First Congregational Church, and a new member must have joined the church by October prior to the start of the following school year.

Presently enrolled students are given priority for admission to the 4's and Pre-K programs. Siblings and siblings of former students as well as children who attended the First Congregational 2's program are given priority enrollment. A lottery is held in January for remaining spots. Families are notified and those who are not placed are put on a waiting list.

Applications are due by January 13, 2012. We will notify you by mail on February 1, 2012. Your response to the notification is due by February 13, 2012 in the form of a returned signed contract and initial tuition payment.

Need-based scholarships are available. Applications are available in the office. There is no application fee if you are requesting scholarship assistance.

The First Congregational Church Nursery School provides each child with a meaningful experience favorable to growth and development. The school creates a friendly, social atmosphere. A child's feeling of self-respect and self-confidence is developed, as well as respect and consideration for others.

Children three through five years of age are eligible to enroll. Three year olds meet 3 mornings a week, 9:15-12:00. Four year olds meet 5 mornings a week, 9:00-11:45. Pre-K meets 5 mornings a week AND 3 afternoons til 2:30.

Our tuition inclusive "specials" are 2 music programs each month, Jr. Naturalists for 3 year olds and Pre-K, Movement, Messy Art each week and Spanish each week.

All afternoon programs are optional for an additional fee. These include Lunch Bunch, Sports Camp, Kitchen Science, Craft Happy, Letters & Literature, and Numbers & Science. Good Morning Group is a Monday morning program available as an added 4th morning to 3 year olds.
